

Dear Parent / Guardian of BBG Student,

«Class»

One of the most precious things we have in life is time: it is a currency that is more valuable than money because once it's been spent, it's gone forever.

We are excited to tell you that the first BBG LATE NIGHT for the 2020 Leavers will be on FRIDAY, 17th JANUARY. As this will be the first time that this unique mix of revision and support will be offered to them, please let me explain a bit about Late Night and how it will work.

BBG Late Night was first introduced in 2018 as a way for students to cover content and revision that the constraints of the school day would not allow for. It offered the opportunity for pupils to participate in varied revision activities in a different environment than the norm, and to learn about alternate methods for revision that may be a better 'fit'. It was such a success that we have continued the practise in different iterations since then – allowing to build on and refine the experience for pupils.

Your child is being invited to participate in BBG Late Night so that they can take advantage of this learning. Our focus on Friday will be guided revision techniques, mindfulness and building a revision timetable. I cannot stress how important it will be for them, in that it will give them the tools necessary to refine and develop their revision skills. The session timetable is as follows:

Break	Session 1	Session 2	Session 3	TEA	Session 4	Session 5	End
2:45 – 3:00	3:00 – 3:30	3:30 – 4:15	4:15 – 5:00	5:00 – 5:20	5:20 – 6:05	6:05 – 6:50	6:50

We want this experience to be supportive, different, and comfortable for students. To that end, we are happy for students to bring clothes to school to change into for the Late Night – but the clothing choices should be more of a 'night in' choice than a 'night out' choice. If you have any queries regarding whether a piece of clothing is appropriate, please err on the side of caution.

Students will be given their specific itineraries for the night on Friday, 17th January.

As ever, thank you for your support of the school – and of your child – in the preparation for GCSEs.

Please fill out the response form attached to the bottom of this letter by Wednesday, 15th January AT THE LATEST to indicate how your child will make their way home from school.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to get in touch.

Thank you,

Sharon Brack

Deputy Headteacher
